

Research Topic: ESRC Socio-Legal Studies

Reference Number: HUMSS ESRC 2019 LAW

Overview: As part of the The North West Social Science Doctoral Training Partnership annual ESRC competition Keele University invites outstanding student applications to pursue research training studies to apply for fully-funded postgraduate research studentship in any of the five Social Sciences pathways.

For 2019-20 ESRC applications are invited for the following pathways:

- Criminology, Social Policy and Social Work
- Economic & Social History
- Health & Wellbeing
- Social Studies of Science, Technology & Medicine
- Socio-Legal Studies

Further Information and how to apply:

<https://www.keele.ac.uk/humssr/prospectivestudents/researchcouncilfundingopportunities/>

Duration: 3 years

Funding: Funding support is provided as follows:- 100% UK tuition fees for 3 years commencing 2019/0. Stipend support for three years at Research Council rates (2018/9 stipend £14,777 per annum).

Closing date: 4th February 2019.